S&M Moving Systems Presents International Household Goods Workshop

(Phoenix, AZ, February 17, 2009) – S&M Moving Systems hosted an International Household Goods workshop in Phoenix today.

The workshop is created for clients to help educate and showcase how shipments are prepared for international moving.

“Sharing information with our clients helps prepare their employees for what can be a very challenging period in their professional career and family life,” said Mary Meyer, Director of International Operations. “We want to work closely with each family to help make their move go smoothly. Educating them on the required paperwork, timelines and customs information helps make the thousands of moves we do every year go smoothly.”

The workshop also featured an international packing demonstration and warehouse tour.
