S&M Moving Systems Helps Teen Challenge's Women and Children's Center

(Fremont, CA, December 4, 2008) – S&M Moving Systems continues its support of local organizations which help those in need.

“While most of are busy preparing for the holiday season, it is easy to forget those who are unfortunate and in need of holiday cheer. We need to take a moment to brighten someone's spirit by learning a few ways to help people in need,” Clay Goodman, Vice President of Business Development.

This year, S&M Moving Systems will be donating to Teen Challenge's Women and Children's Center. This residential recovery center is for single women, pregnant women, and women with children. This is one of the only Teen Challenge Women's Center's in the U.S. where children can stay with their mother during rehabilitation, rather than being placed in foster homes.
