S&M Moving Systems Brinker Names Residential Sales Manager

(Phoenix, AZ, February 2, 2010) – S&M Moving Systems recently named Nathan Brinker Residential Sales Manager for Arizona and Southern California.

Brinker has 14 years experience with S&M Moving Systems and United Van Lines, and consistently has been named to United Van Lines prestigious Master's Club and Salesperson of the Month. Brinker began his career in St. Louis working with Interstate Operations, before relocating to Phoenix where he continued with operations until he began to focus on residential sales. Brinker currently also serves as Vice President, Global Business Development, where he provides creative direction and account management to a wide number of national account clients.

Brinker's new responsibilities include developing talent, providing training and mentoring, as well as overseeing compliance and regulatory requirements to ensure customer's rights are being protected.
